Asking. You Promise
Nothing.

We are so confident that we can furnish relief for indigestion and dyspepsia that we promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who uses it according to directions who is not perfectly satisfied with the results. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever.
Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here where you live, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home, and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. If they don't please you, tell us and we will quickly return your money. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at

Good Advice.

Bryan, at Chicago, emphatically denies that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination; denies emphatically that he will be and declares that he will not be the candidate of the party for the presidency. And he proceeded to give expression to some views worthy the utmost consideration and respect, saying:

"The returns, taking the country over, indicate no landslide in prospect toward either party. Republican gains in the East indicate that predatory interests are lining up back of the president.
Every inch of ground will have to be fought over. We have another session of congress which will materially affect the campaign, and of course, no one can speak with any certainty in advance.
All that is apparent now is that the campaign will be a sure enough fight and not a one-sided contest."

In other words the Democrat in office or the Democrat in the ranks who declares himself with the belief that the Republican party is dead, or who is inclined to the opinion that it is discountenanced to an extent that will make Democratic victory as sweeping as it was, for example, when Franklin Pierce swept the electoral colleges against Winfield Scott, is a victim of political hallucination. Mr. Bryan is right! The victories of 1910 and of 1911 presage Democratic victory in 1912. Not a doubt of that!

But it is in overconfidence of the Democratic party that the Republican party, backed by trust, millions, will find its greatest hearing.

It took Democratic talk, Democratic work, Democratic organization, Democratic confidence in the justice of its cause and Democratic votes to win the victories of last year and of this. It will take the same things to bring about Democratic success in 1912—with the added element of Democratic fulfillment of election pledges made this year and last year. The Republican party is not going to surrender. It is not going to give up. It may put on a look of pain and despair, but it will be most dangerous when it does so. It will be backed by a splendid organization; by an abundance of money and by all things which have been repudiated by the people. But the fight of 1912 is not completely won today. There will be a fight next year and it will be a fight from start to finish. Today the Democratic party has all the advantage—but let him use it advantage rightly. That done, the result next year will not be in doubt. But never believe that the Republican party will give up the White House without a bitter struggle!—

"It cannot be that earth is man's only abiding place. It cannot be that our life is a bubble cast by the ocean of eternity to float a moment upon its waves and sink into nothingness. Else, why is it the high and glorious aspirations which leap like angels from the temple of our hearts are forever wandering unattained? Why is it that the rainbow and cloud come over us with a beauty that passes off and leave us to muse of their loveliness? Why is it that the stars which hold their festival around the midnight throne are set above the grasp of our limited faculties, forever mocking us with their unapproachable glory? And, finally, why is it that the bright forms of human beauty are presented to our view, and taken from us, leaving the thousand streams of our affections to flow back in an alpine torrent upon our hearts? We are born for higher destiny than that of earth. There is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the stars will be spread out before us like the islands that slumber on the ocean, and where the beautiful beings which pass before us like the shadows will stay forever in our presence." In these beautiful thoughts we can find much to be thankful for, even if a vacant chair is in our home and the dark side of life seems turned toward us. They will place a silver lining behind any cloud. As a matter of fact we all have much to be thankful for.

OPINIONS as to the net results of the coming session of Congress vary not a little. Some of the statesmen already in Washington believe that Congress will pass practically no legislation. Others are just as certain that it will delve deeply into tariff legislation. It is not very probable that Congress will transact very much business, as both parties will probably feel disposed to go ahead with much caution on the eve of a big political campaign, in order to make as few mistakes as possible. The currency will receive a good deal of attention, and an effort will be made to adopt the Aldrich plan for a central bank. The Democrats are disposed to abolish the Commerce Court, which they accuse of being too strongly biased in favor of the transportation interests. They declare unequivocally that they have "got its goat," as the sporting editors say. The question of waterway improvement will try to have a definite policy adopted, and the trust busters are due for a lot of anti-trust talk.

CONGRESSMAN R. L. Henry, of Texas, chairman of the Rules Committee of the House, will make an effort during the session of Congress to amend the Sherman anti-trust law that "trust criminals," as he terms them, may be put in jail when they violate the law. He is convinced there is no other remedy for the trust evil. "Fines and dissolution suits are child's play for trust magnates," he said, "explaining the law he will introduce, 'Felon's stripes' is the only remedy for these commercial outlaws who violate the law. My bill legislates the 'rule of reason' out of Sherman law, and specifically defines just what constitutes a trust, so that there can be no further evasion on the ground that the statute is ambiguous." The Henry bill will provide imprisonment for not less than two years for each violation. The Texas member has assurances, he says, that his bill will become a law.

"On the tariff the President occupies the position of a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," declares Oscar Underwood, Democratic leader of the House. "When tariff legislation is up the protection interests of America are always able to convert him into a Mr. Hyde, standing for all the indefensible inequalities of a high protective tariff. As soon as the tariff legislation is out of the way, and the big interests have got what they want, and the President's genial smile radiates from the back of a Pullman car, he becomes a Dr. Jekyll, with the gentlemanly intention of relieving the American people from the indefensible burden of taxation that his former acts put upon them."

The country press of Kentucky nixed the Democratic ticket, and the platform and furnished the issues upon which the race was won, but we do not believe they did it either for glory or jobs.

In Lexington, last week, has been spending several days here with the family of his brother on the Campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cosby will move about December 15, into the residence on Lancaster avenue occupied by Mrs. J. W. Zaring. Mr. Allen Zaring and his mother will occupy rooms in the same building.

Mr. Alex. Bowles left yesterday for Frankfort where he has been engaged to assist in making the music for two performances at the opera house and will also take part in the Elks' Memorial services in that city on next Sunday.

Editor Green Clay Walker, of Lancaster, was in the city Friday and paid this office a pleasant call. Mr. Walker is getting out one of the best weekly papers published in Central Kentucky, and was here to secure advertising for his publication.

Wedding invitations, after marriage and at home announcements, calling cards, death and birth announcements, anything, everything in this line of work printed or engraved at CLIMAX office. Business strictly confidential.

Don't forget the Bazaar at Masonic Temple, Saturday, Dec. 2d, benefit of First Christian church. A large variety of useful and ornamental articles will be offered for sale. A nice tempting lunch will be served. Doors open at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. John R. Gibson will give a linen shower this afternoon at her home on West Main street in compliment to Miss Lucy White Booker, whose wedding has been announced to take place, Dec. 6, at Ellendale, the home of Miss Booker's aunt, Mrs. Ellen Gibson, in this city.

Dr. H. C. Jasper and Mr. James B. White have returned from a very pleasant outing in Arkansas. While there they enjoyed several days fishing and hunting, and report game plentiful in that section. Dr. Jasper owns a large tract of land in Arkansas and is preparing to have cultivated next year a large crop of cotton. Mr. White was greatly pleased with the country and may decide to make investments during the next few months.

A telephone message last week to Mr. Sanford Newton, of Kirksville, announced the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. G. T. Linsey, of Jellico, Tenn. Mrs. Linsey was, before her marriage, Miss Fannie Newton and was a resident of this city a many years ago when her father, Mr. B. J. Newton, owned and edited the old Richmond Herald. Many acquaintances of Mrs. Linsey in this city will sympathize with her in her illness and all trust she will soon be restored to health.

Mrs. Thos. J. Smith, of Richmond, the president of the State Federation, delivered an interesting address to the Women's Club Saturday afternoon at their rooms at the Public Library. She related graphically the good work done in the past for better schools and civic improvements, and proposed that the league now add to its programme an appeal for an appropriation from the Government to convert Mammoth Cave and the surrounding property into a National Reservation. A musical and informal reception followed the address. During her visit here Mrs. Smith was the guest of Mrs. Luther Williams-Shelby News.

Frankfort people will be pleased to know that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Smith, of Richmond, are coming to Frankfort to live for four years. Those who know Mr. and Mrs. Smith know how attractive they are and those who do not know either have heard so much that is pleasant of them both that they feel that they know both. Mr. Smith will make an ideal private secretary to the Governor.—Frankfort News-Journal

OLD PURITAN BIBLE BOXES

Curious Carved Chests for the Safe-keeping of Copies of the Scriptures.

Almost invariably after some great wave of religious enthusiasm, we are confronted by strange fragments of salvage relics of the emotional passion and religious ardor of a departed hour, says the Queen. Such were the devotional carvings of the middle ages—the triplicies, the private tabernacles, the beautiful little ivory diadems.

Among such memorials are the vast old Puritan Bible boxes. Cumbersome, ancient arks, into which the revised version of James I. was once committed for safe ward and keeping. The sound oakboards with which they were made have resisted the tooth of time. In the long journeys of the men of the Puritan period, when the scriptures were part of the daily accompaniment of life, the province of these old boxes may readily be seen. With in the home they were made to contain those ponderous family Bibles in which, especially during the commonwealth, the head of the house carefully inscribed the birth, death or marriage of his children with other memorabilia of family life. This circumstance in the absence of other authentic records, and the laxity of parish registers, has sometimes proved an invaluable aid, how little we could have spared, for instance, that volume in which Milton recorded the very hour and minute of his children's birth.

Ash wood was sometimes used in the manufacture of Bible boxes, but oak was the most popular for its superior powers of resistance, for it must remember they were at times in the possession of ecclesiastical stalwarts, the vigor of whose preaching was sometimes calculated by the amount of damage done to the pulpit furniture.

Throughout the commonwealth, and by the general convention of 1656, traveling ministers were gratuitously supplied with Bibles, a very expensive item; and in struggling pastorates the book, with its appropriate cover, often formed the sole effects of a new conventicle. It is a curious fact that Bibles were sometimes subjected to raffling, even in those austere days. In 1675 one Dr. Wilke bequeathed £250 for the purpose of providing Bibles to be raffled among the poorer brethren.

Malthoid Roofing

Most roofing guarantees are a joke. Experience teaches the longer a roofing is guaranteed to last, the poorer it is. Manufacturers inexperienced in making roofings—without knowledge as to their dependability—without responsibility as to their own financial standing, will very often guarantee their roofing for any number of years simply to get the order.

The roofing generally fails and so does the firm that makes it and they never live to make good their guarantee. Malthoid Roofing is made to make good and while its manufacturers guarantee it, their guarantee is unnecessary because the roofing in itself is sufficient to do all that is claimed for it.

For twenty-six years, The Paraffine Paint Co., of San Francisco and Chicago have made and guaranteed their roofing and not one single purchaser can ever say that Company has not hesitated to make good a guarantee.

You can depend upon the responsibility of the makers of Malthoid Roofing, and you will never have to bother about guarantees if you use Malthoid Roofing.

Holmes Arrested.
Charles Holmes, who escaped some months ago from the Richmond jail, was arrested last week in Laurel county.

Holmes went to a livery firm, in Mt. Vernon, about three days ago and asked for a saddle horse to ride to Estill county. Several days elapsed and search was made the man and horse were found in Laurel, where he has been indicted for the crime and his trial will come up in a few days.

Holmes was charged with breaking into the postoffice at Hedges, Clark county, and was placed in jail here from which he managed to escape.

Deserted Farms.
Young people are leaving the farms for the city. In 1890 but 22,708,420 out of a total population of 62,947,714, or 36.1 per cent, were town dwellers. In 1900 30,780,875 out of a total population of 75,994,575, or 40.5 per cent, were found in cities. In 1910 42,623,383 out of a total population, or 46.3 per cent, were dwelling towns and cities. Good roads is the remedy.

State Finances.

At the close of business on November 1st, the outstanding warrants amounted to a little over $1,000,000 and it is believed that about one million of this amount will be called in about December 10th, and stop the payment of interest. State Treasurer Edwin Farley stated recently that no definite calculation had been made yet, but a general estimate had been made and that he believed that something near a million dollars worth of the warrants would be called in for payment. When the Democrats went out of office they left something like a million and a quarter dollars in the Treasury. The Republicans will leave nearly a million dollars of debt drawing interest as well as a large floating debt.

May Cut Off Berea.

Under the heading of "What's Doing Among Politicians," in the Louisville Times, appears the following:

There is considerable talk of a bill being introduced in the coming Legislature providing for the cutting off of a portion of Madison county and adding it to Jackson county. The portion desired to be cut off is the territory around Berea, which adjoins Jackson county. It is pointed out that the inhabitants of the Berea section are not in sympathy with the rest of Madison county and its institutions, being principally people from the North, who, it is claimed, believe in negro equality and the co-education of the races, as formerly practiced at Berea College, and that there are numerous in Jackson county would be more in keeping with their environment, politically and socially. Another happy result of the proposed change would be to make Madison county nearly one thousand Democratic instead of usually Republican by a small margin.

Inaugural Invitation.
As the inauguration of the governor is a matter of public interest, in order that the whole people, the committee has decided, instead of attempting to formally issue individual invitations, to make the invitation a general one to all Kentuckians, and thus avoid any appearance of discrimination. Below we publish the invitation:

"The inauguration of James B. McCreary, as Governor, and Edward J. McDermott, as Lieutenant Governor, will take place at the Capitol, Frankfort, on Tuesday, December 12, 1911.

"All Kentuckians, regardless of party affiliation, are most cordially invited to attend the ceremonies incident to the inauguration.

"Clubs and other bodies that wish to participate, should notify the Executive Committee as soon as possible, in order that they may be assigned positions in the parade.

Higher Draft Price Secured by President Neal.

Capt. William Neal, president of the Bluegrass Association, has returned from the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, held at San Antonio, feeling much elated over having scored a victory in both the points he had presented for the consideration of the magnates.

President Neal fought the good fight for an increased draft price for players in Class D, a graduated increase being granted all along the line. Class D players who are grabbed by higher clubs next season will net the club from which they go $400, instead of $300, the previous standard, subject, of course, in the ratification of the National Commission, which it is thought will be gained without much difficulty.

Another pet project of Capt. Neal was adopted, after he had presented the matter to the attention of the magnates. This was his plan to grade the umpires the same as players, to keep them on the reserve list of leagues, as players are on individual club reserve lists, and to pass a draft enactment compelling higher leagues who secure umpires from those of lower classification to pay a draft price.

The "boys in blue" will benefit by this arrangement, thinks Capt. Neal, as the players have by the draft rule. In fact, he believes that all worthy handlers of the indicator who show real class will receive rapid promotion in their honorable branch of the profession.

Deserted Farms.
Young people are leaving the farms for the city. In 1890 but 22,708,420 out of a total population of 62,947,714, or 36.1 per cent, were town dwellers. In 1900 30,780,875 out of a total population of 75,994,575, or 40.5 per cent, were found in cities. In 1910 42,623,383 out of a total population, or 46.3 per cent, were dwelling towns and cities. Good roads is the remedy.

State Finances.

At the close of business on November 1st, the outstanding warrants amounted to a little over $1,000,000 and it is believed that about one million of this amount will be called in about December 10th, and stop the payment of interest. State Treasurer Edwin Farley stated recently that no definite calculation had been made yet, but a general estimate had been made and that he believed that something near a million dollars worth of the warrants would be called in for payment. When the Democrats went out of office they left something like a million and a quarter dollars in the Treasury. The Republicans will leave nearly a million dollars of debt drawing interest as well as a large floating debt.

May Cut Off Berea.

Under the heading of "What's Doing Among Politicians," in the Louisville Times, appears the following:

There is considerable talk of a bill being introduced in the coming Legislature providing for the cutting off of a portion of Madison county and adding it to Jackson county. The portion desired to be cut off is the territory around Berea, which adjoins Jackson county. It is pointed out that the inhabitants of the Berea section are not in sympathy with the rest of Madison county and its institutions, being principally people from the North, who, it is claimed, believe in negro equality and the co-education of the races, as formerly practiced at Berea College, and that there are numerous in Jackson county would be more in keeping with their environment, politically and socially. Another happy result of the proposed change would be to make Madison county nearly one thousand Democratic instead of usually Republican by a small margin.

Inaugural Invitation.
As the inauguration of the governor is a matter of public interest, in order that the whole people, the committee has decided, instead of attempting to formally issue individual invitations, to make the invitation a general one to all Kentuckians, and thus avoid any appearance of discrimination. Below we publish the invitation:

"The inauguration of James B. McCreary, as Governor, and Edward J. McDermott, as Lieutenant Governor, will take place at the Capitol, Frankfort, on Tuesday, December 12, 1911.

"All Kentuckians, regardless of party affiliation, are most cordially invited to attend the ceremonies incident to the inauguration.

"Clubs and other bodies that wish to participate, should notify the Executive Committee as soon as possible, in order that they may be assigned positions in the parade.

When the Ill-Fitting Stocking "Pleads Guilty"

"Give the devil his due"

Bad shoes are not always to blame for bad feet. Not all the corns and bunions, tired and aching feet, "drawn" soles and ingrowing nails are caused by bad shoes. The ill-fitting stocking must plead guilty to much foot trouble.

A stocking too tight in the foot may choke the circulation, bind the toes together and bend them under. A stocking too loose in the foot may cause the foot to feel too small. A stocking too thin may bring you a blister from sheer want of rub if the stocking were fitted right. A darned stocking makes a corn, a seamed stocking irritates the sole of the foot. Above all, if the dye in the stocking is poisonous, or not fast color, all feet troubles are made worse. One reason why we call our stockings

The Lexington Herald gives the following account of an automobile accident in which two of Richmond's young men figured:

"What came near proving a fatal accident terminated in a good scare and a shake-up Thursday when the automobile of D. O. Wiggins skidded into a telephone pole, tearing off two of the wheels and throwing the occupants to the ground with force. The machine was driven by June Wiggins, while the other occupants were Messrs. Claude R. Snyder of Lexington, manager of the Henry Clay Fire Insurance Company, and Robert Burnam, Jr., of Richmond. They were making a business trip to the country.

Mr. T. J. Smith

Selected Secretary to Governor-elect McCreary.

It was very gratifying news to the many friends of Mr. Thomas J. Smith to know of his appointment as secretary to Governor-elect James B. McCreary, and with his excellent family will leave for Frankfort next month to make his home during this administration. No more pleasing appointment could have been made by Governor-elect McCreary, as Mr. Smith is eminently fitted in every way to fill the office and is one of the most popular young men in Richmond. He was during Senator McCreary's canvass for office, his chief lieutenant, and did valiant service for the entire state ticket during the campaign. Mr. Smith's friends, not only in Madison but throughout the state, will be pleased to know of his selection as secretary to the Governor. Mr. Smith, who is one of the most active club women in the state, will be greatly missed from social and club circles in this city, where she has long been one of our popular matrons. All will regret, however, that this community will have to surrender to the citizens of Frankfort and commend to them this popular and genial gentleman and his family.

Farmers' Union.

Saturday last, P. L. Barnett, of Paducah, made a speech at the court house in this city in advocacy of the Farmers Union. There was present a very fair crowd, and Mr. Barnett spoke with the clearness and point that characterizes a man who has held an office in the brotherhood. His speech, though replete with doctrines pertinent to the order, and we fully vouch for the truthfulness and the good he says will necessarily accrue from its adoption. He claims that much good will attend the efforts of the members. We are the farmer's friend, and we are anxious they should receive every benefit that to them belongs.

Sheep Quarantine To Be Raised.

It will be very gratifying to the Madison county sheep growers to know that Federal Inspector A. J. Payne informed the Kentucky Live Stock Sanitary Board that he had recommended the raising of the quarantine on Kentucky sheep by April 1st. Dr. Payne said that all counties except a few, this disease had nearly disappeared along the Virginia border line, and in those it might be stamped out by April 1.

Walton, the veteran newspaper man and member-elect of the General Council, of Lexington, Friday captured a burglar, who had just made an attempt to enter his residence at 426 West Third street. Colonel Walton was on his way home to lunch at 1 o'clock, and just as he neared his home he met the burglar, who gave him the name as John Cooper, a negro, being pursued by members of his family who had been frustrated the negro's attempt to rob the china pantry. Colonel Walton called to the negro to stop, and taking hold of him, he held on while a police of the family telephoned to police headquarters, and a patrolman was sent to take the negro into custody.

Russell Winkler Arrested On Charge of Forgery.

The Winchester News contains the following notice concerning a young man formerly of this city. Winkler is a son of Sid Winkler of Richmond; Russell Winkler, wanted on a charge of forgery, has been located at Clyde, Ohio, after a diligent country-wide search extending over a period of nearly two months. Chief of Police Woodson McCord has applied to Governor Willson for requisition papers and will leave Sunday or Monday to return with the accused man for trial. Winkler came to this city on October 13th, and cashed two checks on the Citizens National Bank of Richmond. They were for $5 each, made payable to himself and signed with the name of H. C. James, of Richmond. One check was cashed by Martin and Thomas. When the signature was found not to be genuine, Mr. Ramsey served out a warrant for the arrest of Winkler, but it was not until after a diligent search, that the man was finally located. Winkler has served one term in the penitentiary on a forgery charge.
